

Like, Hate, Love, and Enjoy (and chores vocabulary practice)

Directions: Write the negative form of each sentence

Example:

Soledad likes to vacuum the floor.

Soledad doesn't like to vacuum the floor.

1. Tina likes to sweep the floor.

_____ Tina doesn't like to sweep the floor _____.

2. We like wiping down the table after dinner.

_____ We don't like wiping down the table after dinner _____.

3. Nesrine and Luna like doing the laundry on Mondays.

_____ Nesrine and Luna don't like doing the laundry on Mondays _____.

Directions: Complete each sentence with the infinitive and gerund form of the verb.

Example:

Oanh likes (mop) the floor on Saturdays

A. Oanh likes to mop the floor on Saturdays

B. Oanh likes mopping the floor on Saturdays

1. Alia likes (make) the bed every day.

A. _____ Alia likes to make the bed every day _____.

B. _____ Alia likes making the bed every day _____.

2. Do you like (do) the dishes?

A. _____ Do you like to do the dishes? _____.

B. _____ Do you like doing the dishes? _____.

3. I like (wash) the clothes but I hate putting them away.

A. _____ I like to wash the clothes _____.

B. _____ I like washing the clothes _____.

Directions: Write a sentence about each activity using the word like, hate, enjoy, or love.

1. (do the laundry/wash the clothes)

I hate doing the laundry

2. (take out the trash)

I like taking out the trash

3. (make the bed)

I enjoy making the bed

4. (do the dishes)

I love doing the dishes
